

‘Something out of Nothing’

From Marilyn Ferkinhoff

I made an inch scale lamp from a Keurig pod, straw, water bottle cap, wooden circle and sewing pin.

I drilled a hole in the cap, glued it onto the circle and inserted the trimmed straw. Then I painted it. I trimmed the top off the pod and glued on cord and inserted a pin in the shade top. It could be electrified since the straw is hollow.